Dr. Agus Harimurti Yudhoyono

Coordinating Minister for Infrastructure and Regional Development

Agus Harimurti Yudhoyono (AHY) currently serves as the Coordinating Minister for Infrastructure and Regional Development. Previously, he served as the Minister of Agrarian Affairs and Spatial Planning and the Head of the National Land Agency. He also holds the position of Chairman of the Democratic Party, one of Indonesia's leading political parties.

He also played a central role in establishing the Indonesian Defense University in 2009 and a joint working group on transformation plans for the Indonesian Armed Forces (TNI). Over the years, he has been known for his active public contribution through published articles, books, and panel participation.

AHY received three master's degrees from world-class universities, i.e., Master of Science in Strategic Studies from S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore in 2016; Master in Public Administration from John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, U.S., in 2010; and Master of Arts in Leadership and Management from George Herbert Walker School of Business and Technology, Webster University, U.S. (2015). And received a doctoral degree in Human Resource Development at Airlangga University, Indonesia (2024).