Dr. Do Cam Tho

Director of Planning and Finance department,
Vietnam National Authority of Tourism (VNAT)

Dr. Do C.T. has nearly 30 years of experience in tourism research and state management. She has led numerous ministerial-level scientific research projects and major national initiatives in the tourism sector , including the Master Plan for Tourism Development, the Tourism Development Strategy, the Scheme on Restructuring the Tourism Sector to Meet the Requirements of Becoming a Key Economic Industry, and the Project on Developing Distinctive Tourism Products for Different Regions. She has also participated as a drafting committee member in the Law on Tourism, the Strategy for the Development of Cultural Industries, the Strategy for National Industrialization and Modernization, and the Marine Economic Development Scheme, as well as in the formulation of various Government Decrees and Circulars related to tourism and associated sectors.

Supported by 日本財団 THE NIPPON FOUNDATION